

EFFORT TO BAR R. R. FROM WAGE HEARING FAILS

Vice Chairman Hooper Rules Out Contention That Some Roads Had Violated Law

SHOP WORK AT ISSUE

Several Labor Board Cases Involve Railroads Sub-Let-ting Contracts

Chicago, March 13. — An attempt to bar a number of the railroads from the wage hearings before the Labor board failed today when Vice Chairman Ben W. Hooper ruled against evidence presented by railway attorneys to show that the roads had violated the law and should therefore have no standing before the board.

The ruling brought out the fact that action on cases involving three roads, charged with violation of the transportation act because of contracting work to outside firms, was expected soon. The question at issue, Vice Chairman Hooper said, was one of the most important the board has faced. If such contract work were declared legal, he added, "the ground would be cut out from under this board and the railroads would be able to do as they pleased."

The ruling was made over the protest of B. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts unions, who asserted that if shops were to be closed by the railroads one day and opened by a contractor at lower wages the next, the railroads were setting an example which might convince the employees that "the very small number we have termed radicals are right and the great majority of sane-minded employees are 100 per cent wrong."

Jewell's attempt to rule out the contracting carriers came after he had presented testimony intended to show that proper conferences, according to the requirements of the transportation act, had not been held prior to the wage disputes to the board on numerous occasions. In all cases, he charged, that railroads did not give the required 30 days' notice of their wage adjustment proposals, that they submitted a fixed reduction for acceptance or rejection, and that there was no real endeavor made to actually negotiate a new scale.

WAGE NEGOTIATIONS AT NEW YORK BROKEN OFF

New York, March 13. — Negotiations between executives of 52 eastern railroads and representatives of conductors and trainmen's unions, looking toward a new agreement as to wages and working conditions, were broken off today without a settlement having been reached. The announcement was contained in the following statement issued by the bureau of information:

"The conference between certain carriers represented by the conference committee of managers of eastern railroads and conductors and trainmen, represented by the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, which have been held on various dates beginning February 16, 1922, were adjourned today, it being apparent that a mutually satisfactory agreement could not be arrived at and as previously agreed, the negotiations made by the state in the hope of a settlement are to be considered as though they had not been proposed."

Atlanta, Ga., March 13. — All of the 16 persons injured in the derailment and destruction of an Atlanta-Birmingham and Atlantic passenger coach of a train en route to Pittsburgh at Camp Creek early Sunday were pronounced out of danger today and arrangements were being completed for burial of seven persons killed.

The coach was sent crashing from a trestle into the shallow creek below, all of the killing being instant death. A broken wheel caused the wreck, according to a statement issued by B. L. Bagg, receiver of the road.

Opponents of Four-Power Treaty Loose Series of Broadcasts Against Pact

Riverside, N. J., March 13. — A number of possible clues were unearthed today by detectives trying to solve the mystery surrounding the death of John T. Brunen, circus owner, slain with a shotgun at his home here last Friday night. Some of the clues, Prosecutor Jonathan Kelsay of Burlington county said tonight, led to the winter quarters of several circuses in different parts of the country. Every effort was being made, he added, to locate George Weiner, known as "Dutchy, the Chief," who, Kelsay said, recently had been discharged by Brunen.

Prosecutor Kelsay said that he had learned that an oath of vengeance had been made by relatives of a man Brunen was reported to have shot and killed at Mr. Carmel, Pa., several years ago during a fight in the midway of his show there. Brunen was acquitted on a plea of self-defense.

"No one has been charged with the crime," the prosecutor declared, "but as yet we have eliminated no one who has been under suspicion." Brunen had a dozen enemies, Kelsay stated.

"Often he had expressed to me," the prosecutor said, "that certain people were trying to 'get him.'"

Authorities were investigating the report from Hammorton, N. J., that a touring car bearing license tags stolen from a garage in Philadelphia had been found there Saturday. The car had been abandoned by three young men who were seen to climb aboard a truck headed for Philadelphia, the reports stated. The car had been abandoned after it crashed through a fence and when found the engine was running and it had been damaged only slightly.

The hope that a footprint directly under the window through which the fatal shot was fired would furnish a clue to the slayer was dissipated when Mrs. Brunen told the officers the prints had been made by her shoe. The only other possible clue to the identity of the slayers is a part of the gun from which the shot was fired. A piece of gun stock was found near the Brunen home.

A postmortem examination of Brunen, made by Coroner Benton, showed that the shot was fired from a 12-gauge shotgun at close range.

TESTIMONY FINISHED IN OBENCHAIN TRIAL

Accused Used Her Husband as 'Human Doormat,' Prosecutor Says in Opening Argument

Los Angeles, March 13. — Testimony in the trial of Madalynne Obenchain in the murder of J. Belmont Kennedy, was completed today and Judge Sidney N. Reeve directed the attorneys to proceed with argument.

Declaration that Mrs. Obenchain, used her husband, Ralph Obenchain, as a "human doormat" was made by Deputy District Attorney C. W. Frick in the opening argument for the prosecution.

Frick dwelt upon Mrs. Obenchain's relations with Obenchain, Kennedy and Arthur C. Burch, co-defendant. The prosecution contends Burch fired the shot which killed Kennedy.

Mrs. Obenchain's testimony was completed this afternoon. The defense called only one more witness and the prosecution confined its rebuttal to the testimony of Mrs. J. D. Kennedy, mother of the slain man.

Mrs. Kennedy testified that Miss M. L. Wilson, proprietor of a "beauty parlor," told her on July 11, 1921, "Your son is going to die; you are going to cry."

Miss Wilson, when testifying for the defense, said that Kennedy and Mrs. Obenchain communicated with each other through her, and denied she made the statement to which Mrs. Kennedy testified.

H. S. Hallner, a private detective, was the last defense witness. He said he recently drove an automobile from Los Angeles to Long Beach, a seaside resort, and back, the speedometer reading 43.3 miles. The prosecution offered testimony to show that the speedometer reading on a car driven by Burch on the night of the slaying was 44 miles. There was no testimony that Burch was in Long Beach.

ONE JUROR CHOSEN IN ARBUCKLE TRIAL

Six Veniremen Examined in Opening Day of Third Trial of Motion Picture Actor

SLAYS GIRL, THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

Married Man Had Asked Girl Friend to Desist From Attention to Other Men

San Francisco, March 13. — One juror temporarily passed was the record of the first day's session in the third trial of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle on manslaughter charges arising from the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, one of the guests at a party given by him here last Labor Day. Miss Rappe succumbed September 10 and Arbuckle was arrested the day following for murder, the charge later being reduced.

Six veniremen were examined. Four were accused of having opinions. One proved satisfactory to both sides and the sixth was still under examination at adjournment. When court convened, it was found that 14 members of the jury panel were missing and a recess was taken until after lunch so that the sheriff's deputies might round them up. Most of these were on hand when court reconvened.

The first juror selected to convict Arbuckle, chosen in mistrials. The first jury voted 10 to 2 for acquittal and the second 10 to 2 for conviction.

On September 5, 1921, a drinking party was held in Arbuckle's suite in the Hotel St. Francis, which was attended by Miss Rappe, her friend, Mrs. Bambina Maud Belmont, Zez Prevoost and Alice Blake, showgirls, and a number of others. After Arbuckle had been alone in his room with Miss Rappe for a brief period she was found on a bed, apparently in agony. Four days later she died from the effects of ruptured bladder.

On September 10 Mrs. Belmont swore to a murder charge against Arbuckle and three days later the grand jury returned a manslaughter indictment against him. A police hearing of Mrs. Belmont's charge resulted in its being reduced to manslaughter, and Arbuckle went to trial on this charge on November 14. On Sunday, December 4, the jury ended a period of deliberation covering 43 hours with the statement that it could not agree. The second trial started January 2, the jury being out 44 hours. Arbuckle testified in the first trial, but did not do so in the second.

After the second trial District Attorney Matthew Brady announced that "had a majority of the jury voted for acquittal I would have moved for the dismissal of the case but the preponderance in favor of a conviction compels me to proceed. It is a third time the jury must decide upon the failure of the jurists to agree, both the indictment and the police court charge were kept alive."

The testimony of Miss Prevoost and Miss Blake in the second trial differed so materially from their statements in the first trial that they made an attempt to impeach them and disqualify them. "Hostile action" made an attempt to impeach them and disqualify them. "Hostile action" made an attempt to impeach them and disqualify them.

PRESIDENT RETURNS TO CAPITOL FRIDAY

Harding Party Discards Houseboat Today to Proceed to St. Augustine by Train

(By the Associated Press)

Fort Pierce, Fla., March 13. — President Harding and his vacation guests left here this afternoon after a round of golf for the final run of their houseboat trip down the east coast of Florida. According to the plans as announced here, the houseboat will put into Miami during the night and tomorrow the President and his guests will leave for St. Augustine by train preparatory to leaving for Washington on Friday.

Nine holes of golf were played here today and then the boat resumed its cruise southward with its distinguished guests aboard. Before leaving, however, the President let it be known that he intended to be in St. Augustine Wednesday "rain or shine." He was undecided as to his program for tomorrow, but it is understood it will probably include either golf or a fishing trip.

At Belvedere hospital, it was said, Mrs. Puccio probably would die, but that his wife would recover. Police expressed the belief that Puccio was attempting to make a bomb.

BANDIT GETS $6,500; FIVE MEN INJURED

Two Wounded Philadelphia Robbers Caught After Gun Fight, a Third Escapes

Philadelphia, March 13. — Two patrolmen and two bandits were shot and a bank runner was injured today when three men held up and robbed a bank messengers in the downtown section. One of the bandits escaped with about $6,500.

The wounded robbers, Mario Lopez and John Vitagone, were caught after a running gun fight with Police Officer Lawrence Butler and William J. McCafferty, who also were wounded. A satchel containing about half the $13,000 taken from Robert McGraw, the runner, after he had been assaulted and thrown into the bandits' automobile, was recovered. The bandit who escaped is believed to have the remainder. McGraw was hurled from the car when it rounded a corner shortly before the policemen, following in a truck, could get within pistol range.

It was believed the wounded men would recover, although Patrolman Butler's condition was pronounced serious.

D. & H. TELEGRAPHERS NOW UNDER LABOR BOARD RULE

The decision provided for an eight hour day with pro rata pay for the ninth hour and time and one-half after the ninth hour.

FAVORABLY REPORT 8 HOUSING BILLS

Two Other Measures Lacking Support Will Be Reconsidered by Cities Committee Today

Albany, March 13. — Eight bills recommended by the legislative housing committee were reported favorably in the senate tonight by Senator L. W. H. Gibbs, Republican, of Erie, chairman of the cities committee.

Three other measures failed to get enough votes to have them reported favorably but Senator Gibbs has called another meeting of the committee for tomorrow morning, at which it declared two of the three measures are certain to be reported.

The eight bills reported tonight were advanced immediately to order of final passage by unanimous consent. These measures would:

Permit mutual insurance companies to write the same class of risks as stock companies.

Amend the New York city charter to allow the city in its discretion to take over contracts of sub-contractors when the general contractor fails.

Require public records on dismissal of indictments.

Require insurance companies to invest at least 40 per cent. of their future investible funds in mortgage loans on improved unencumbered real property.

Provide for state supervision of rate-making associations and regulation of rates.

Repeat that part of the law of 1921 giving the superintendent of insurance direction to extend beyond December 31, 1926, the time within which life insurance companies must dispose of their stock holdings.

Require insurance companies, other than life, to dispose of their stock holdings within five years and to limit their investments to the same security as life insurance companies and savings banks.

Require savings bank to invest at least 40 per cent. of their deposits in bonds and mortgages.

The two measures which will be reconsidered tomorrow are those providing for a state trade commission and to permit the people to appeal from an order dismissing an indictment without a trial on the merits.

JOHN F. DODGE IN JAIL

Son of Late Millionaire Auto Manufacturer Involved in Espionage With Normal Student

Kalamazoo, Mich., March 13. — John F. Dodge, son of the late John F. Dodge, millionaire Detroit automobile manufacturer, and Roy Earl of this city were held in the county jail today pending further investigation into an automobile accident yesterday that resulted in serious injury to Miss Emmeline Kwakernack, 19 years old, Western State Normal school student.

Miss Susan Stegenga and Miss Ethel Clemens, also Western Normal students, who also were in the machine, told officers, Dodge and Earl offered to take them to their home from a dance, and that Miss Kwakernack leaped from the machine, when Dodge, who was driving, ignored their protest that he was not driving in the right direction to their rooming house.

They charged he drove into the country at high speed.

The Kwakernack girl was found at the roadside by a passing motorist, who took her to a hospital. Officers declare a bottle of liquor was found in the machine.

LITTLE HOPE FELT

Government Will Go No Further But Await Development of Threatened Strike

Washington, March 13. — Little hope for averting a strike in the unionized bituminous coal fields on April 1 was held out today in those official circles which are most concerned with the repeated government attempts to bring about an adjustment of wage differences. Mine operators, it was declared, were continuing in their refusal to enter a conference with the United Mine Workers looking to the creation of a new wage contract for the central competitive field, notwithstanding representations made to them by Secretary of Labor Davis, who holds that existing contracts require them at least to enter negotiations regardless of whether such negotiations are carried to completion.

The United Mine Workers of America, the general union organization, was declared to be entirely willing to enter a conference, although insisting upon the maintenance of existing wage scales, which were adopted in 1920. The employers are demanding reductions amounting to 20 per cent. or more.

It was indicated in official circles today that the government would go no further at present but await development of the threatened strike.

The degree of possible government intervention later, it was said by a high official, would be determined by the degree to which the strike, if it developed, might affect adversely the public welfare.

New York, March 13. — Harry Greb of Pittsburgh tonight defeated Tom Gibbons of St. Paul, receiving the judges' decision after their 15-round match in Madison Square Garden. Greb, styled the "human wind mill," swung hard rights and lefts to Gibbons' head throughout the contest and his speed prevented the St. Paul man from carrying out effectively his famed body attack, with which he has knocked out within the last two years more than 40 opponents.

Gibbons' punching was all for the body and the blows he landed were light. Gibbons won five rounds, second, third, tenth, eleventh and twelfth, and the remainder, with the exception of the fifth and seventh, which were even, went to Greb.

Neither man landed a blow powerful enough for a knockdown. It was their fourth ring engagement. In their previous bouts, Gibbons had won two on newspaper decisions. Greb, weighed 163½ pounds for tonight's bout and Gibbons 172½ pounds heavier.

The Fight, Round by Round

Round 1. Greb rushed at Gibbons and when they clinched the referee had difficulty in separating them. They exchanged light body blows at close quarters. The pace was fast, but blows were few. Greb landed a hard left to the body, and brought blood to Gibbons' mouth with a right at the end of the round.

Round 2. Gibbons worked a left to the body. Gibbons crossed a right to the jaw. Gibbons sent a right to the body. They exchanged hard punches to the stomach at close quarters.

Round 4. Greb sent left to the jaw when Gibbons missed a right swing for the body. Gibbons sent left to stomach. They exchanged rights to jaw. Gibbons landed straight left to chin. They exchanged rights to body.

Round 11. Greb swung a left to the face. Gibbons sent hard right to the stomach. Gibbons sent hard right to the jaw after taking a stiff left to the chin. They punched hard to the body at close quarters.

Round 12. Gibbons sent two hard lefts to the body and hooked a left to the chin. Greb returned rights to head and body. Gibbons sent a straight right to the chin. Greb swung a left to the jaw.

Round 13. Greb swung rights and lefts to the head. Gibbons hooked a left to body. While Gibbons played for a knock-out punch, Greb hammered his head and body with swinging rights and lefts.

Round 14. Greb continued his swinging assault to the head and body. Gibbons swung a left to the stomach. Both missed many chances for effective punching through wildness. Gibbons landed a light left to the stomach.

ADVISORY COMPENSATION BOARD GIVEN APPROVAL

Albany, March 13. — The assembly tonight passed the bill authorizing the state industrial board to order medical treatment for workmen for as long a period as necessary; seek to bring longshoremen, canal and marine workers under coverage of the law, to give the state fund a free hand to collect and conduct its business, and to add the occupational diseases, poisoning by zinc, formaldehyde and hydrocyanic acid.

MUSCLE SHOALS NOT SUITED FOR PRODUCING FERTILIZER

Washington, March 13. — Charles L. Parsons, consulting chemist and former technical advisor to the government on nitrate fixation, testified today before the house military committee that Henry Ford, or any other person or company, would "lose their law money" before they ever produced commercial fertilizers at Nitrate Plant No. 2 at Muscle Shoals, Ala. The plant, which has cost the government about $69,000,000, the witness said, was designed to be operated only by an obsolete method and was worthless as a fertilizer producer.

As to the future use of the plant at Muscle Shoals, Mr. Parsons recommended that it be kept for emergency use in war-time and declared that was its only present value.

UNEVEN DAY ON THE N Y STOCK EXCHANGE

Few Leading Shares Show Definite Trend Until Final Hour, When Reactions Set In

New York, March 13.—Individual or selected issues dominated the uneven market prices on the New York stock exchange today. Few of the leading or representative shares showed any definite trend until the final hour, when selling pressure effected reactions of one to three points.

Utilities, sugars, rubbers, independent steel and junior rails registered gross gains of one to six points. Dividend-paying rails, motors, equipments and the oils figured only nominally in the extensive turn-over.

Adverse foreign happenings, notably the crisis in India and South Africa, apparently exerted little influence apart from their marked effect on international currencies. Extension of domestic labor troubles, including the New England textile situation, also was ignored.

Western tonnage conditions during the past week were more encouraging and general, if somewhat irregular, business was reported from that section, as well as further pronounced improvement in the steel and automobile trades.

Regardless of the heavy reduction of reserves which is expected to accompany mid-week payment of federal income taxes, money rates were easy.

Excepting the international group, which reflected the heaviness of foreign exchanges, the bond market was fairly strong on larger and broader dealings.

United Kingdoms and Belgian 6s were most susceptible to British colonial unsettlement, but French, Swiss, Norwegian and Argentine issues showed comparative strength. Domestic offerings were extremely mixed, utilities displaying an upward trend under lead of American Telephone 6s and Chicago Railway 5s. Liberty 2 1/2s closed at a slight loss, but most of the 4 1/2s and Victory notes strengthened on further accumulation.

GIRL NOW WELL AND STRONG

Daughter Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as Mother Advised

Wauseon, Ohio.—"My daughter always had backache and leg-ache at certain periods and could not be on her feet at those times. We used about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing girls much good so she began to take it. That is two years ago and she is a different girl since then, able to do any work she wants to do—although she is still careful not to do heavy work—and so well and strong. We recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers with ailing daughters, and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. A. M. BURKHOLZER, Route No. 2, Box 1, Wauseon, Ohio.

Something out of balance will affect the finest clock, causing it to gain or lose. The proper adjustment made, all is well. So it is with women. Some trouble may upset you completely. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct the cause of the trouble and all disagreeable symptoms will disappear.

DEED FOR A SMALL BOY

Woman Transfers Little One to Another by Warranty Document.

A warranty deed, formally transferring ownership of a small boy from one woman to another, has been placed on record at Tampa, Fla.

The deed shows that the transaction took place last January in Hardin county, Texas. Mrs. Nettie Davis deeding her three-month-old son to Mrs. Norma L. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson recently moved to Tampa, and had the deed recorded to prove her ownership.

Courthouse officials express the opinion that the deed is illegal, in that it is unfair to the child and deprives him of the rights of heritage, as provided in papers of adoption. In the event of the death of Mrs. Wilson before the boy is of age, officials said, he would pass as a chattel and become part of the estate, if the transaction was held legal.

AN EXCELLENT SELECTION.

The appointment of Miss Florence Wardwell of Springfield, Conn., as Vice-Chairman of the Woman's Republican Executive Committee, is a deserved tribute to one of the ablest women workers in the Republican ranks. Miss Wardwell has been a member of the committee for two years, giving valuable service, bringing to it her extensive experience, particularly in up-State activities. She is an excellent example of the type of women now doing aggressive party work. She was not a suffragist, but when the privilege of voting was given women she was among those who promptly measured the importance of exercising that great privilege.

During the recent international conflict Miss Wardwell was a zealous worker in Belgian relief, being the recipient of a medal from the Queen of the Belgians, Elizabeth, and in one form or another—Red Cross, Liberty Loan, Hoover Relief—she used her marked executive ability, achieving exceptional results. She soon found the same sense of duty called her to express her political convictions with the Republican party in her own home town, Springfield, Conn.

Two years ago Miss Wardwell was made a member of the Woman's Republican Executive committee, where her broad-minded views of humanitarian movements and her intimate knowledge of many of these, such as the needs of rural schools, has made her an invaluable aid to the Chairman of the Committee, Mrs. Anne Livemore. In addition to these gold qualities, Miss Wardwell brings enthusiasm and charm of manner in her work. Many of the Republican women's organizations throughout the State have already invited her to speak, and she is planning to spend the summer granting these requests.

Miss Wardwell was special legislative chairman for the Livemore bill, which has passed the Legislature and the Governor has signed. She is an enthusiastic believer in the importance of election district work and recently said: "We women have always been interested in our neighbors; it has been considered our task from time immemorial to know our neighbors,
to meet them cheerfully, to help them,
if need be. Now I think it is just as much our duty to rouse the women of our own election districts to their duties as voters."

FLAT RATES ARE WASTEFUL

Declares Public Service Commission
in Schoharie Light Decision.

Albany, March 13. — The Public Service commission has directed the Middleburgh & Schoharie Electric Light, Heat and Power company to
at once make the necessary changes in its plant and distribution system
so that the voltage furnished consumers in Schoharie and vicinity shall be 110 volts with a variation of not to exceed five per cent. The company is further directed on or before July 1 to install meters at consumers' premises in Schoharie and then do away with its existing flat rates by establishing a new rate schedule. The company is also directed to install watt-hour meters and Wattmeters at its plant.

This order by the commission is to provide better service for Schoharie consumers of the company. Commissioner Blakeslee, in a memorandum, says the evidence showed that the voltage varied to a great degree and was below normal during the evening when peak loads occurred on the system. The company, he says, now furnishes a limited night service, but the evidence does not indicate any necessity for a continuous or 24 hour service, although it would be convenient for consumers using appliances and small motors.

"The company," says the commissioner, "reported 59 flat rate consumers and 19 metered consumers in Schoharie. It is believed that these flat rate consumers tend, to some extent, to cause the existing poor service, as flat rates for electric service are inequitable, discriminatory and lead to wasteful utilization of the service."

McKOWN TRIAL ADJOURNED.

Franklin Woman Charged with Larceny at Herkimer, to Be Tried in June

A Herkimer dispatch, dated March 11, says:
Caroline McKown of Franklin, Delaware county, accompanied by her attorney, L. E. Raymond, and some relatives, appeared in county court yesterday afternoon and was arraigned on an indictment charging grand larceny. The larceny is alleged to have been committed in the city of Little Falls on Oct. 26, 1921, when Mrs. McKown is said to have taken personal property from the home of Mrs. Francis A. Lamb. Mrs. McKown was wearing a canvas of the city and was rooming at the Lamb home.

Following the reading of the indictment, Mrs. McKown, through her attorney, made a general denial of the charge against her and asked that the present bail be continued and the case put over until the June term of court. This was done by the court upon the consent of District Attorney
W. Earl Ward.

PRETTY WELL SATISFIED

State Inspector Makes Only One Recommendation for Otsego County Jail.

Albany, March 13. — The State Commission of Prisons has approved the following report of inspection:
Otsego county jail, Cooperstown, inspected February 18, 1922. Fred S. Williams, sheriff. There are also an under-sheriff, turnkey and civilian cook. Mrs. Williams acts as matron.
The population at the time of inspection was 16, classified as follows:
Adult males serving sentences, 9;
adult males held for the grand jury, 4; adult females held for the grand jury, 1; male minors serving sentence, 1; male minors held for the grand jury, 1. One adult female serving sentence was assigned by court order to the county farm to assist with the housework. The prisoners were properly classified. The greatest number at one time during the past year was 23, the lowest 8, and the average 14.

This jail is two stories high, with large basement, and has 19 cells, each containing two steel bunks, and a hospital room which is generally used as a detention room for females.
Straw ticks and pillows, blankets,
sheets and pillow cases are provided for each cell. In the hospital room
there is a cot bed.

Each cell is equipped with a self-flushing hopper-type toilet and enameled iron lavatory. Some of the toilets were in bad shape, being very much clipped, and the sheriff stated that new toilets had been ordered for five of the cells. This is in compliance with recommendations made in the report of inspection dated July 18, 1921. Inasmuch as the commission had not been advised of the type of toilet to be installed, it was suggested to the sheriff that the installation of the toilets be delayed until the Commission had an opportunity to determine whether or not the new toilets
were of a type approved by the Commission. There are a toilet and shower bath in the hospital room but no lavatory, a vitreous wash basin being used. There are four shower baths and all were in good order. Prisoners are required to bathe twice a week and may bathe as frequently as they desire.

The food for dinner and supper was being prepared at the time of inspection and appeared to be of good quality.

The laundry is located in the sheriff's residence. It consists of a power washer and stationary tubs. The bedding is laundered here, but the personal articles of the inmates are washed in the cells. I believe that it would be much better to have all the laundry work done in the laundry
by some of the trustees.

Some of the sentence men are employed in caring for the county buildings and grounds. They do all the necessary painting, fire the boilers, care for the lawns and walks and do all the janitor work. During the summer some of the inmates are employed at farm work on the county farm.

A physician is appointed and is subject to call. Since February 1, 1922, he has examined all prisoners on admission. There is no receiving room, but a room in the basement of the jail could be easily arranged for such purpose, at practically no expense. This is recommended.

The sheriff is to be commended on the excellent system of records which he has installed. It is now possible to determine in a few minutes the costs of the several items of jail management for any period.

The jail was clean and in good order. It was stated that the work of repainting the interior of the jail with a white enamel paint is to be commenced in the near future.

Recommendations: 1. Equip receiving room in the basement of the jail.

Respectfully submitted,
James McShillinglaw, Inspector.

day next, an extra panel of 100 jurors was drawn today to report at the opening of court Monday afternoon

FULL CREW BILL DEAD

Opposition of Repeal of the Measure
From Railroad Brotherhoods So
Vigorous That Defeat Is Indicated, Says Senator Lowman.

"The full crew repeal bill is dead
for this year in the state legislature," declares Senator Seymour Lowman of Elmira.

"Serious opposition, which was strong enough to defeat the passage of the repeal, developed during the past week. The fact that, if the repeal was enacted into a law, it would throw hundreds of men out of jobs immediately, with no opportunity for those men to secure work again for some time, even on trains where needed, proved the real obstacle to the passage of the bill.

"It is probable that the bill, or a like bill, will come up for consideration next year. If the measure had provided that the state public service commission be given power to order such railroad men as would be thrown out of jobs, placed at work in some other capacity with the railroad companies, it might have been considered differently.

"The legislature will adjourn next Friday, March 17. Work is being rushed to completion and the program of Governor Nathan L. Miller is being carried out.

"There will be no new business tax this year or no tax on gasoline as was proposed. The state appropriation bill will be out. The appropriation this year will be $8,000,000 or $10,000,000 less than last year. Last year's state appropriation was $10,000,000 less than the year before. The economy

program of Governor Miller is working out well. Despite the reduction of taxes, coming to the state, owing to general business depression, the income will be sufficient so that the direct state tax will not have to be increased over last year. This speaks well for the administration."

LOCAL MENTION

The women of the River Street Baptist church will serve a 35 cent supper Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

One of the latest models of the Reo trucks, one equipped with commodious new cabs has been delivered by J. A. Dewar, the local agent, to the Elmore Milling company.

Interest in the savings system installed in the schools of the city some months ago is still active, 1844 or 80 per cent of the 2290 school children in the city and at the Plains having accounts.

Twenty members of the Royal Rebekah lodge held a luncheon banquet at the Elmore Milling company last evening. Following the repast, the assemblage went to the Strand theatre in a body.

There was the usual last minute rush to file the federal income tax statements and pay the bill yesterday. Over 200 postal money orders were issued during the day to persons desirous of sending their tax to Collector Brewster at Syracuse. The federal tax must be paid on or before Wednesday.

P. E. Dunham of Worcester, The Star's correspondent there, called at this office while in the city yesterday and suggested that warning be given motorists that there are several places on the state highway east of Oneonta toward Worcester where dangerous places are encountered, caused by settlement of macadam, several being over sluiceways. Possibly the most dangerous one is near the place of Harry Stevens between Cooperstown Junction and Maryland.

The reserved seat sale for "Clarence," to be presented at the High school auditorium Wednesday and Thursday evenings by the Dramatic club of the school, commences this morning at the store of R. W. Mott. Tickets are 40 cents each, with 10 cents additional for balcony seats. Produced under the direction of Miss Bessie R. Cowan of the school faculty, it will without doubt prove another of the very successful and pleasing plays presented by the students in recent years.

AUTOMOBILE SHOW PLANNED

Unless Present Plans Misarry, Company G will hold a public auto show and accessories at Army During Week of March 27—U. A. Ferguson to be in Charge.

Although the matter has not been definitely decided, it appears probable that an Automobile show will be held by Company G at the State armory during the week of March 27. The question of holding an exhibition that would give dealers in Oneonta and vicinity an opportunity to display models of various cars handled by them has been under advisement by officers of the company for some time, but it was not until yesterday that enough dealers had signified their desire to participate to warrant an announcement. One of two matters need to be settled before it can be said that the show is a certainty, but Captain Baker is confident that it will be held as planned.

U. A. Ferguson has been selected to manage the show and he will be in charge of the many of the details incident to such an undertaking. It is planned to rent space to dealers for the display of cars and accessories, and judging from the number of those who have already asked for space the display of models will be the largest ever held here. The armory will be attractively decorated for the occasion and entertainment of a pleasing character will be arranged for each day of the show. The details of decorations and entertainment will be worked out at a meeting of the committee and interested dealers to be held this week. It was originally intended to hold the show during the week of March 20, but a postponement was made necessary by the illness of Mr. Ferguson.

BRYANT IN CUSTODY

Man Wanted Here on Charge of Passing Bad Checks is Arrested in Syracuse.

Word was received yesterday by Chief Horton from M. L. Cadin, chief of police at Syracuse, that Bryant, wanted in this city for patternancy, was in custody in Syracuse. An officer will be sent to Syracuse today to bring the man here for arraignment.

Bryant is charged with having passed several bad checks in this city. The warrant for his arrest was issued after he had obtained money at Kilkenney's restaurant on a small check which proved to be worthless. It is said that he secured about $200 on fraudulent checks, although he is specifically charged with only one offense. He was traced to Syracuse and the police there, where it is said he has a criminal record, were notified to watch out for him. All of the checks were drawn on the Wilber National bank, where he has an account, but of insufficient size to meet any of the disputed checks.

Preparing for Cortland.

The High school basketball team, which it is to uphold the honor of the city against Cortland High school at Binghamton on March 21 in the first of a series of elimination contests to determine the High school championship of the state, is holding practices each night now in preparation for the all important game. The whirlwind offense and stonewall defense which have characterized the playing of the team in past contests are being developed to a state of perfection, the boys realizing that in Cortland, champions of the southern tier, they have a hard nut to crack. To harden their muscles and improve their wind the players are doing outside track work each day, weather permitting.

Represents City at Traction Hearing.

City Engineer Frank M. Gurney will represent the city at the hearing in Albany today before a special jury committee of the state assembly and senate on the proposed bill to repeal the present statute requiring traction companies to stand the expense of paving between their tracks and for three feet on each side on paved streets through which their lines run. During the morning the representatives of various cities in the state will gather at the City hall to discuss the best way of presenting their arguments against the proposed repeal of the measure.

Important Legion Meeting.

The annual banquet, which will be held at the armory on Saturday evening of this week, will be one of the principal matters to be discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the American legion to be held in K. of P. hall this evening. Tickets for the big feed will be on sale at the meeting. Other matters of importance will be discussed and entertainment of the usual high quality will be provided. Mess Sergeant Hirshey will be on the job as usual, which means a good feed.

Annual Meeting Held.

The annual meeting of the Otsego & Delaware telephone company was held at the offices of the company on Dietz street yesterday. The present directors and officers were re-elected without change.

York Stone Rake Designed to Obliviate
Work on Dirt Roads to Be Manu-

to Be Sales Manager.

Mahlon D. York of Unadilla is the designer and at the head of a company being formed for the manufacture of the York stone rake and drag combined, a new and practical piece of power road machinery, which it is claimed, combines a scraper, stone rake and drag in one implement and which it is asserted will obviate much of the hand work required heretofore in the maintenance of country dirt roads. The new piece of highway machinery is to be built for the present in Earlville, although Unadilla and other places are seeking to secure the industry.

The York stone rake, which has been demonstrated to town superintendents and other officials actively in charge of the repairs and maintenance of dirt roads and it is announced that the orders received are gratifying and indicating that the company will have a large demand for this particular piece of machinery.

Alex Clark of Fly Creek, who has for years represented the International Harvester company and its machinery in this section and is well known among farm and highway machinery men, has accepted the position of sales manager for the new company and will about April 1 remove to Unadilla to reside.

Mr. Clark has purchased the residence of the late Mrs. Julia E. Cone at the corner of Church and Fellows streets in Unadilla and he will remove from Fly Creek to Unadilla early in April as the general offices and the headquarters of the sales manager will be located in that village.

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING Mrs. Alice Benjamin Mather of Morris Passes Away.

Morris, March 12. — Mrs. Alice Benjamin Mather, widow of the late George Mather, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lavina Lewis Saturday, March 11, after an illness of six years' duration, commencing soon after the death of her daughter, Aylrie, who was invalid for many months, the mother taking entire care of her, causing a complete breakdown on the part of the mother, she never recovering.

Mrs. Mather was born in Morris in 1856 and had always lived in the town. Her parents were George and Juliette (Wellman) Benjamin and they resided for years at Elm Grove, near here. She married George Mather and soon removed to this village, where he died several years ago. Mrs. Mather was a devoted member of the Methodist church here and attended the services of the church so long as she could. She has borne her afflictions which at times caused her to suffer great agony, with Christian fortitude. She had been unconscious for 10 days prior to her death.

Mrs. Mather has been tenderly cared for by her sisters, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Benington, and later by her brother, Oscar, who came on from Rochester last June to assist the sisters. She is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Wilkey of Nichols, Mrs. Hattie Kirkland of Bainbridge and Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Benington, both of Morris; also by three brothers, Oscar Benjamin of Rochester, George, whose address is not known to the writer, and Legrand of Philadelphia, Pa.

The funeral services will be held from the residence on Tuesday at 2 o'clock. The services will be conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. E. Brooks, and the body will be placed in the vault at Hillington cemetery. The surviving relatives will have the sympathy of many friends.

MORENO SUES VITAGRAPH COMPANY FOR $192,000

Los Angeles, March 12. — Antonio Moreno, motion picture actor, has filed suit for $192,000 against the Vitagraph company here, claiming that sum was due him as salary for 76 weeks. He alleged the company had broken a contract by discharging him for refusal to work in pictures as a co-star. He said his contract provided that he was to play nothing but "star" roles.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mabel Brazie.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mabel Brazie, whose death was briefly noted in Monday's Star, will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. at her late home, 198 Main street. Rev. Dr. B. M. Johns will officiate and burial will be beside her husband in the family plot in the Delhi cemetery. She had been ill for about seven weeks, and death was caused by influenza.

For five years they resided with Mrs. Lina Bliss, an aunt of Mrs. Brazie, in Oneonta and afterwards in Napanoch and Auburn, where Mr. Brazie was a prison guard. The latter died in Auburn and Mrs. Brazie returned to this city, which had since been her home. She was by occupation a dressmaker. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was exceptionally kind hearted and generous.

The deceased is survived by three brothers, Richard, Harvey and Claude Denning, all residing in this vicinity; also by an uncle, James Bresce, of Buffalo, and an aunt, Mrs. Lina Bliss, above mentioned.

Given Suspended Sentences.

Francis Raidy and Mrs. Florence Bell, arrested Sunday evening on River street by Officer Crouch who found them exhibiting their ideas of "petting" to the man in the moon, were given suspended sentences when arraigned in city court before Acting City Judge Huntington yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Bell, who has been rooming in the city, was told to return to her home in Binghamton, while Raidy was warned to behave himself in the future. Both pleaded guilty. Raidy being especially vehement in his protestations of guilt. "Sure I'm guilty, Judge," he said, "Yes, yes, Judge, I'm guilty."

Duties and Obligations of a Citizen Outlined

The Following Essay By Ferris J. Hanford of This City Wins Third Prize in Congressman John W. Clarke Prize Essay Contest

The following essay on the subject of "The Duties and Obligations of a Citizen," written by Ferris J. Hanford, of 17 Center street, Oneonta, won the third prize of $10 in the essay contest promoted by Hon. John W. Clarke, representative in Congress from this district.

The United States, today, is considered the world's greatest democracy. At first our government was only an experiment but it has proven a successful one, for many of the other nations of the world have set up governments like ours. The government gives to every citizen certain rights and privileges and in return expects us to perform certain duties and obligations.

Citizens are defined in the Constitution as: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside." In the most general sense a citizen is an individual member of a political society, or state; one who owes allegiance to, and may lawfully demand protection from, the government. In the dual relation of citizenship in the general government and in the state in which a person resides it may be said that a citizen of the United States owes his first and highest allegiance to the general government and not to the state of which he may be a citizen.

Each individual citizen is obliged to perform his duties if the freedom and advantages of the government are to be enjoyed by all. If he does not do his duty, the principles of the Republic are violated. Therefore, when speaking of the duties of a citizen, his obligations are also implied.

The first and one of the greatest duties of a citizen is to vote. He should vote every time he is called upon to do so. He should also try to understand the question upon which he is to vote. The voter should read the newspapers for in them political questions are discussed. It is, therefore, the duty of every man and woman, boy and girl, to read the newspapers and try to understand the questions that they discuss.

A citizen should try to learn the character and fitness of the men for whom he votes and vote for honest men only and men he thinks are "fit for the job." In voting he should support only honest measures. Never, under any circumstances, should a voter receive or give bribes, whether direct or indirect. When voting, a citizen should place his country above his party and vote for the best man for the office. If called upon to hold any office and represent the people he should do so willingly. A voter should continue to vote in the righteous, although defeated, cause. After a law has been passed a citizen should recognize it as the will of the people and, therefore, the law. If he does not like the laws he must not refuse to obey them, but he can by peaceful means try to have them changed. Some people believe that voting should be made compulsory, as is education. Every person receives benefits from the government, especially the protection of our lives and our property, and as a result we are under obligation to help the government. One of the ways to help, is to do everything we possibly can to co-operate with it. Citizens may help their government by being industrious and self-supporting that they may not become a burden on the public. The government must be run and taxes cannot be avoided, therefore, they should be cheerfully paid. Not only should a citizen see that he pays his own taxes but that others pay their taxes as well, so that there will be fair play for all. Sometimes the government needs large sums of money. They think that it would tax the people too heavily so that they issue bonds instead. These bonds should be willingly bought. Grover Cleveland phrased the matter of taxes neatly in one of his epigrams. "The people must support the government, but the government must not support the people."

A citizen should, if able, contribute voluntarily for public improvements. Every citizen should cultivate a patriotic spirit and should be willing to sacrifice personal advantages and party spirit for the public good. In times of war he should freely give his labor and money to the government and if the government needs it he should sacrifice his life. The government protects its citizens and in return expects the citizen to help protect the government.

It is the true American's duty to acquire an education or if he has but little education to try to educate himself. He should allow his children to have the best possible education that he can afford. The citizen should study the history of his country and be an intelligent reader and close observer of current events. He should also study the laws and know why they were made. John Fisk has said of studying history, "Few people have the leisure to undertake a systematic and thorough study of history, but everyone ought to find time to learn the principal features of the government under which we live and to get some inkling of the way in which these governments have come into existence and the causes which have made them what they are." If any person has any talent, whatever it may be, he should cultivate it. He should work for the community and not entirely for himself.

A citizen is obliged to respect and obey the laws unless he is to receive the punishment that accompanies the breaking of the laws. A citizen must know what the laws are in order to respect them. He can learn what the laws are only by reading or hearing them. Besides obeying the laws a citizen must obey all officers of the law. A citizen should also assist the officers in bringing criminals to justice. He should secure order and protect his fellow citizens from harm. The rights of others should not be interfered with nor should the citizen incite others to do harm against his fellow countrymen. Lincoln, one of our greatest citizens, has said of obeying the laws: "Let every American, every lover of liberty, every well-wisher to his posterity, swear by the blood of the Revolution never to violate in the least particular the laws of the country, and never to tolerate their violation by others. As the patriots of Seventy-six did to support the Declaration of Independence, so to the support of the Constitution and laws let every American pledge his life, his property, and his sacred honor; let every man re-

Did you ever
Run out of gas,
Within a mile of home—
And it was after dark—
And raining—
And the kids were sleepy,

And THEN—
Did you remember
That gasoline station
A mile back up the road—
And how you passed it by Without a thought?
Unpleasant,
Wasn't it?
And foolish—
For a little forethought
Would have saved
